

Complex Crystal Arthritis

Wednesday 10th July 2019 - BCEC, Birmingham

PROGRAMME
Wednesday 10 th July
09:15-09:45	Registration and coffee
9:45-10:00	Welcome and introduction to the day	Dr Edward Roddy, Reader in Rheumatology, Keele University
10:00-10:30	Evidence-based urate-lowering therapy: what is it and how is it achieved?	Professor Michael Doherty, Professor of Rheumatology, University of Nottingham
10:30-11:15	Managing gout in chronic kidney disease and organ transplant recipients	Dr Edward Roddy, Reader in Rheumatology, Keele University
11:15-11:45	Break
11:45-12:15	Febuxostat: effectiveness and safety in clinical practice	Dr Kelsey Jordan, Consultant Rheumatologist, Brighton and Sussex University Hospitals NHS Trust
12:15-12:45	Uricosuric drugs: when, how and which one?	Dr Abhishek Abhishek, Associate Professor of Rheumatology, University of Nottingham
12:45-13:15	Advanced imaging in crystal arthritis	Professor Nicola Dalbeth, Professor of Medicine, Department of Medicine, University of Auckland, New Zealand.
13:15-14:00	Lunch
14:00-14:30	Metabolic predisposition in calcium pyrophosphate crystal deposition: who to screen, when and for what?	Dr Pascal Richette, Assistant Professor of Rheumatology, Hôpital Lariboisière, Paris, France
14:30-15:00	Pharmacological management of calcium pyrophosphate crystal deposition	Dr Abhishek Abhishek, Associate Professor of Rheumatology, University of Nottingham
15:00-16:00	Complex cases and panel discussion	Panel: Dr Abhishek Abhishek, Professor Nicola Dalbeth, Dr Kelsey Jordan, Dr Pascal Richette, Dr Edward Roddy
16:00	Close	